Caroline L. Hall is a matrimonial attorney in DHC's Divorce & Family Law practice. A strong advocate, Caroline is passionate about negotiating on behalf of clients to obtain favorable settlements out of court. She also recognizes that litigation is oftentimes unavoidable. As a fierce advocate for her clients, Caroline brings a unique ability to bring a calmness to high conflict situations. She is artful at navigating the emotional complexity that is unique to divorce actions and family law disputes. While working diligently to make the divorce process as painless and expedient as possible and achieve the desired results, she is also sensitive to the fact that she is representing clients in one of the most stressful and challenging times of their lives.

Seasoned experience in client matters including:

- Child Custody and Visitation
- Child Support
- Complex Divorce Litigation
- Decision-Making and Parenting Time
- Equitable Distribution of Property
- Financial Asset Tracing
- Mediation and Negotiated Settlements
- Orders of Protection
- Prenuptial and Postnuptial Agreements
- Relocation
- Spousal Support/Maintenance

Caroline joined the firm in April 2022 as an Associate and is admitted to the New York State Bar.

Prior to joining the firm, she practiced matrimonial and family law exclusively, at a boutique firm in midtown Manhattan. She received her B.A. in Journalism from the University of Texas at Austin and her J.D. from Fordham University School of Law, where she was a member of the Fordham International Law Journal, she interned as a law clerk for the Hon. Barbara Jaffe in the New York County Supreme Court, and served on the Consumer Litigation Clinic, where she represented low-income clients on a pro bono basis in disputes with creditors in civil court. Caroline is a member of the New York Women's Bar Association and serves on its Matrimonial and Family Law Committee.

When she is not practicing law, Caroline enjoys running and has completed the New York City Marathon and various half marathons. She lives in Chelsea with her fiancé, where you can find her running up and down the West Side Highway and trying the best restaurants New York has to offer.
