

Sean E. Crowley

Partner

P: 646-428-3266

E:sec@dhclegal.com

John “Sean” Crowley is Partner in the New York City office of Davidoff Hutcher & Citron LLP. Mr. Crowley focuses on government affairs and lobbying efforts in New York State and New York City while providing a supporting role in the firm’s Washington DC practice. Sean brings his creative problem solving skills to assist clients with business development goals, strategic advocacy with government officials/agencies, and in winning legislative objectives.

Prior to joining the firm, he was the Managing Partner of Crowley, Crowley & Kaufman; was an Investigator with the New York City Council, and Campaign Coordinator for Congressman Thomas J. Manton.

Mr. Crowley is a member of the Queens County Bar Association, Past-President of the Brehon (Irish) Law Society of New York City.

Mr. Crowley is an advisor to Board of Directors of the Emerald Isle Immigration Center. He is a member of the Board of Directors for the Power Memorial Academy Alumni Association and the Board of Directors at All Hallows High School in the Bronx. In addition, he is a co-administrator of the Mercy/Martyrs CYO basketball program.

Mr. Crowley resides in Forest Hills with his wife, Maureen and their three sons: Pearse, Owen and Garrett.

Practices

Government Relations, Land Use

Admissions

- New York

Awards

- City & State NY's Borough 50 list for Queens, 2016
- Cathedral Club, Diocese of Brooklyn, Guest of Honor, 2015
- Irish American Building Society, St. Thomas More Award, 2012
- President of St. Mary Winfields Youth Council in Woodside
- Board of Directors of Maz Fund

Education

City University Law School, J.D.

Fordham University, B.A.