

Nick Antenucci

Senior Counsel

P: 518-465-8230

E:nfa@dhclegal.com

Nick Antenucci serves as Senior Counsel for DHC's New York State Government Relations group which focuses on all aspects of government relations on the New York State level. The group represents clients ranging from the film industry, not-for-profits, including universities and social service agencies, to statewide trade associations, banking, and the insurance industry.

For over 15 years, Mr. Antenucci has represented a diverse set of clients before the Governor's Office, administrative agencies, the Senate and the Assembly in Albany. Mr. Antenucci is proficient in the legislative and State Budget process, economic development initiatives as well the state's evolving gaming industry.

A former Assembly committee clerk, Mr. Antenucci began his career working for then-Assemblymember RoAnn Destito (currently the Commissioner of the NYS Office of General Services). Mr. Antenucci graduated from Western New England University School of Law.

Practices

Government Relations

Admissions

- New York State

Education

Western New England University School of Law, J.D., 2010

Rockefeller School of Public Affairs and Policy, M.P.A., 2002

Utica College of Syracuse University, B.A., 2000